SUPPLEMENT

Davy ESG Equity Fund

Dated 21 December 2018

1 IMPORTANT INFORMATION

The Directors (whose names appear under the heading "Management of the Company – Directors" in the Prospectus), accept responsibility for the information contained in this Supplement and the Prospectus. To the best of the knowledge and belief of the Directors (who have taken all reasonable care to ensure that such is the case) the information contained in this Supplement and in the Prospectus is in accordance with the facts and does not omit anything likely to affect the import of such information. The Directors accept responsibility accordingly.

Shareholders should note that all the fees and expenses of the Fund may be charged to the capital of the Fund. Thus on redemption of holdings shareholders may not receive back the full amount invested and this will have the effect of lowering the capital value of the shareholders investment.

Shareholders should note that dividends will be paid out of capital, therefore capital may be eroded, distribution is achieved by forgoing the potential for future capital growth and this cycle may continue until all capital is depleted.

This Supplement contains information relating specifically to Davy ESG Equity Fund (the "Fund"), a Fund of Davy Funds p.l.c. (the "Company"), an open-ended umbrella fund with segregated liability between sub-funds authorised by the Central Bank as a UCITS pursuant to the Regulations.

This Supplement forms part of and should be read in the context of and in conjunction with the Prospectus for the Company dated 21 December 2018 (the "Prospectus").

The Fund is suitable for investors who are prepared to accept a high level of volatility.

An investment in the Fund should not constitute a substantial proportion of an investment portfolio and may not be appropriate for all investors

As the price of Shares in each Fund may fall as well as rise, the Company shall not be a suitable investment for an investor who cannot sustain a loss on their investment.

The Fund may invest in Financial Derivative Instruments ("FDI") for currency hedging and efficient portfolio management purposes. (See "Borrowing and Leverage; Leverage" below for details of the leverage effect of investing in FDI).

3 INFORMATION ON THE FUND

3.1 Investment Objective, Investment Policies and Investment Strategy

(a) Investment Objectives:

The investment objective of the Portfolio is to achieve long-term capital growth by investing, on a global basis, primarily in equities of companies that meet the social, environmental and ethical criteria as described in the Investment Policies below.

There can be no assurance that the Fund will achieve its investment objective.

(b) Investment Policies:

The Fund intends to achieve its investment objective by primarily investing in companies that make a positive contribution to society, and/or act to safeguard the environment and/or that promote fairtrade. The Fund will seek to reduce risk through geographical and sector diversification. The Fund will invest up to 20% of its net assets in Emerging Markets.

In selecting companies for investment, the Investment Manager will seek to invest in companies that present attractive risk/reward potential and will seek to avoid investing in companies that are primarily involved in the following activities: armaments, gambling, tobacco, the manufacturing of abortifacients and contraceptives and where possible, pornography, and companies which contribute to unethical acts or omissions, such as companies with a record of violating fundamental humanitarian principles or violations of human rights. The Fund will also seek to avoid investing in companies that conduct or commission animal testing for cosmetic or toiletry purposes or make use of child labour.

Where any investment by the Fund, which at the time of acquisition is consistent with the foregoing ethical criteria, subsequently, in the Investment Manager's opinion, is not consistent with the foregoing ethical criteria, the Investment Manager will dispose of such investment within a time period which ensures that such disposal occurs in the best interests of the Fund.

The asset allocation of the Fund may vary due to market conditions, this is to adjust the balance between equities and cash to market conditions; however, equities will form the majority of the Fund's investments. The Investment Manager will appoint an ethical advisory committee consisting of appropriate qualified personnel within the Investment Manager and external appointments (the "Ethical Advisory Committee"). The Ethical Advisory Committee will meet with the Investment Manager on a semi annual basis to discuss the ethical criteria and guidelines that the Investment Manager is applying to the Fund. The Ethical Advisory Committee and the Investment Manager will aim to be at the forefront of evolving social, environmental and ethical issues.

Other investments may include commercial paper (i.e. short term paper (issued by credit institutions)), government and corporate bonds (of Investment Grade which may be of fixed or floating rate) and may include cash deposits. Subject to the investment restrictions set out under the heading "Investment Restrictions" in the Prospectus and the ethical investment criteria, the assets of the Fund will be invested in securities that are listed or traded on recognised exchanges on a global basis. The Fund may, subject to the conditions and limits set out below under the heading "Investment Restrictions" invest up to 20% of its net assets in other units of UCITS and alternative investment funds as set out in the Central Bank Guidance on UCITS Applicable Investments in Other Funds).

The Fund may also use Financial Derivative Instruments for efficient portfolio management and currency hedging purposes as described in section 3.2 below.

(c) Investment Strategy:

The investment approach utilises a combination of both quantitative and fundamental analysis. The Fund is managed using a strong, disciplined and structured investment process. The initial stage of the investment process involves the utilisation of an ethical screen to ensure that the Fund invests in companies that operate in an ethical manner or that display positive environmental or social policies.

A further quantitative screen is used to filter the broader equity universe into a sub-set of stocks which represents the investable universe for the investment style. The use of the screen provides the team with a focused universe of stocks to research. Effectively, this screening process narrows the universe to a sub-set of stocks which broadly display the following characteristics:

1. Large-cap companies;
2. Established profitability;
3. Not overly expensive in absolute valuation terms;
4. Attractive medium term earnings growth; and
5. Financially stable.

The Investment Manager undertakes fundamental research on the candidates within the investable universe. This involves industry/sector research, company analysis and valuation work. The Investment Manager looks to identify the key growth drivers of the sector and business, the competitive landscape, the strategic outlook for the company and the potential risks. Where possible, the fund manager will also look to meet company management, competitors, suppliers, etc. Valuation analysis is performed in order to identify a fair value for potential investments.

Following the quantitative and fundamental analysis, the Investment Manager will endeavour to construct a balanced global portfolio of 60 to 90 stocks. The portfolio is primarily built using an active, bottom-up approach. Geographic and sector weightings are regularly reviewed to ensure that the Fund remains suitably diversified from a risk perspective.

3.2 Use of Derivatives and Efficient Portfolio Management Techniques

The Fund may engage in transactions in FDI for currency hedging and efficient portfolio management purposes and/or to protect against currency exchange risks within the conditions and limits laid down by the Central Bank from time to time. The Investment Manager will look to ensure that the techniques and instruments used are economically appropriate in that they will be realised in a cost-effective way. Such transactions may include foreign exchange transactions which alter the currency characteristics of transferable securities held by the Fund. Such techniques and instruments (details of which are outlined below) are options and forward foreign exchange contracts.

Warrants, share purchase rights and convertible securities will not be directly acquired but may be issued to the Fund pursuant to its investment in a particular security and, in such cases, may be retained for the purposes of efficient portfolio management and traded or exercised when considered appropriate.

Options

An option contains the right to buy or sell a specific quantity of a specific asset at a fixed price at or before a specified future date. There are two forms of options: put or call options. Put options are contracts sold for a premium that give to the buyer the right, but not the obligation, to sell to the seller a specified quantity of a particular asset (or financial instrument) at a specified price. Call options are similar contracts sold for a premium that give the buyer the right, but not the obligation, to buy from the seller a specified quantity of a particular asset (or financial instrument) at a specified price. Options may also be cash-settled. The Fund may use such instruments to hedge against market risk or gain exposure to relevant underlying equity or equity related security. Any option entered into by the Fund will be in accordance with the limits prescribed by the law.

Forwards

Forward currency contracts could be used to hedge against currency risk that has resulted from assets held by the Fund that are not in the Base Currency. The Fund, may, for example, use forward currency contracts by selling forward a foreign currency against the Base Currency to protect the Fund from foreign exchange rate risk that has arisen from holding assets in that currency.

Direct and indirect operational costs and/or fees (which do not include hidden revenue) arising from use of FDIs for EPM purposes may be deducted from the revenue delivered to the Company. Such costs and/or fees are payable to the relevant counterparty to the FDI in question and such counterparty may or may not be related to the Investment Manager or the Depositary. All revenues generated from such FDIs, net of direct and indirect operational costs, will be returned to the Company.

Collateral or margin may be passed by the Fund to a counterparty or broker in respect of OTC FDI transaction. Please refer to the section of the Prospectus entitled "Collateral Policy" for further details.

The use of FDI and efficient portfolio management techniques for the purposes outlined above will expose the Fund to the risks disclosed under the section of the Prospectus entitled "Risk Factors".

3.3 Borrowing and Leverage

(a) Borrowing

The Company may only borrow on a temporary basis for the account of the Fund and the aggregate amount of such borrowings may not exceed 10% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund. In accordance with the provisions of the Regulations, the Company may charge the assets of the Fund as security for borrowings of the Fund.

(b) Leverage

The Fund may utilise FDI as referred to in the section headed "Use of Derivatives and Efficient Portfolio Management Techniques" above. The Fund will use the commitment approach to measure market risk and calculate its exposures. The total expected level of leverage of the Fund as a result of its investments shall not exceed 100% of its Net Asset Value.

The Investment Manager does not expect the use of FDI to significantly increase the Fund's risk profile.

The expected level of leverage range is calculated based on the sum of the absolute value of notional of the derivatives used, in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank. This figure does not take into account any netting and hedging arrangements that the Fund has in place at any time even though these netting and hedging arrangements are used for risk reduction purposes and is therefore not a risk-adjusted method of measuring leverage which means this figure is higher than it otherwise would be if such netting and hedging arrangements were taken into account. As these netting and hedging arrangements, if taken into account, may reduce the level of leverage, this calculation may not provide an accurate measure of the Fund's actual leverage position.

The Company on behalf of the Fund has filed with the Central Bank its risk management process which enables it to accurately measure, monitor and manage the various risks associated with the use of FDI. Any FDI not included in the risk management process will not be utilised until such time as a revised submission has been provided to the Central Bank. The Company will, on request, provide supplementary information to Shareholders relating to the risk management methods employed, including the quantitative limits that are applied and any recent developments in the risk and yield characteristics of the main categories of investments.

3.4 Investment Restrictions

Investors must note that the Company and the Fund adheres to the restrictions and requirements set out under the Regulations, as may be amended from time to time. These are set out in Appendix I to the Prospectus.

In accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank, the Fund will apply for a derogation from some of the investment restrictions for six months following the date of the first issue of Shares of the Fund pursuant to the Regulations but will observe the principle of risk-spreading. Please refer to the section 5.5 of Appendix I of the Prospectus for further details.

3.5 Profile of a Typical Investor

A typical investor will be seeking to achieve a return on their investment in the medium to long term.

3.6 Risk Factors

Investors should read and consider the section of the Prospectus entitled "Risk Factors" before investing in the Fund. However, not all of the risks disclosed in the Risk Factors section of the Prospectus will be material to an investment in this particular Fund.

In addition to the above referenced risks, investors should also consider the particular implications of the following risks that are relevant to an investment in the Fund. Fees and expenses of the Fund may be charged to the capital of the Fund. Thus, on redemptions of holdings shareholders may not receive back the full amount invested and this will have the effect of lowering the capital value of their investment. There is a greater risk therefore that capital may be eroded and "income" will be achieved by foregoing the potential for future capital growth of your investment and the value of future returns may also be diminished. Investors should note however that distributions made during the life of the Fund are a form of capital reimbursement.

The Fund may charge fees and expenses to capital where insufficient income has been generated by the Fund to cover the fees and expenses. There is a greater risk therefore that capital may be eroded and "income" will be achieved by foregoing the potential for future capital growth of your investment.

The risks described in the Prospectus should not be considered to be an exhaustive list of the risks which potential investors should consider before investing in the Fund. Potential investors should be aware that an investment in the Fund may be exposed to other risks from time to time.

3.7 Key Information for Buying and Selling Shares

Details of all share classes are set out in the table below.

The Investment Manager may reject at its discretion any application for Shares in the Fund and may also, at its discretion, redesignate/switch a Shareholder from one Class to another in circumstances where the Shareholder no longer belongs to the category of investors to which that Class is available. The Investment Manager will not charge fees for redesignation/switching undertaken in such circumstances

Under the Articles, dividends may be paid out of the profits, being (i) the accumulated revenue (consisting of all revenue accrued including interest and dividends) less expenses and/or (ii) realised and unrealised capital gains on the disposal/valuation of investments and other funds less realised and unrealised accumulated capital losses of the Fund; or (iii) out of capital.

Dividends are paid out of capital to allow the provision of income to Shareholders of the Distributing Share Classes, in the event of insufficient income being in the Fund for a particular period.

Dividends will be paid to Shareholders by electronic transfer to the relevant Shareholder's bank account of record on the initial Application Form in the currency of denomination of the relevant Distributing Share Class at the expense of the payee and within the timeframe outlined above. The net income available for distribution in respect of the relevant Distributing Share Class will be determined in accordance with the relevant law and generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied.
