1 IMPORTANT INFORMATION

The Directors in the Prospectus, accept responsibility for the information contained in this Supplement and the Prospectus. To the best of the knowledge and belief of the Directors (who have taken all reasonable care to ensure that such is the case) the information contained in this Supplement and in the Prospectus is in accordance with the facts and does not omit anything likely to affect the import of such information. The Directors accept responsibility accordingly.

Shareholders should note that all the fees and expenses of the Fund will be charged to the capital of the Fund. Thus on repurchase of holdings shareholders may not receive back the full amount invested and this will have the effect of lowering the capital value of the shareholders investment.

Shareholders should note that dividends will be paid out of capital, therefore capital may be eroded, distribution is achieved by forgoing the potential for future capital growth and this cycle may continue until all capital is depleted.

This Supplement forms part of and should be read in the context of and in conjunction with the Prospectus for the Company dated 21 December 2018 (the "Prospectus").

The Fund is suitable for investors who are prepared to accept a high level of volatility.

As the price of Shares in each Fund may fall as well as rise, the Company shall not be a suitable investment for an investor who cannot sustain a loss on their investment.

The Fund may invest in Financial Derivative Instruments ("FDIs") for investment, currency hedging efficient portfolio management purposes. (See "Borrowing and Leverage" below for details of the leverage effect of investing in FDIs).

3 INFORMATION ON THE FUND

3.1 Investment Objective, Investment Policies and Investment Strategy

(a) Investment Objective:

The investment objective of the Fund is to seek to achieve capital appreciation over the long term. There can be no assurance that the Fund will achieve its investment objective.

(b) Investment Policies:

The Fund intends to achieve its investment objective by investing in a global portfolio of equity securities with diversification by sector and country. The Fund will invest in those markets as defined by the MSCI World Index (the "Index"). The Fund is not tracking the Index and will not invest in those assets used by the Index.

The Index is a broad-based index capturing those shares freely available for investment in developed equity markets across the globe including but not limited to the following markets, Australia, Austria, Belgium, Luxembourg, Canada, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hong Kong, Ireland, Israel, Italy, Japan, Korea, Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Portugal, Singapore, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, United Kingdom and the United States. The Fund may not invest more than 20% of the net assets of the Fund in emerging markets.

The weighting between various countries and market sectors (including, but not limited to, the financials sector, e.g. banks, insurance and development stock and the industrials sector, e.g. building products, airlines and construction and engineering) is determined by the views of the Investment Manager on the attractiveness of each country and market sector at any point in time and the associated risk of each country and market sector.

The Fund may not invest more than 20% of the net assets of the Fund in authorised open-ended UCITS with exposure to equities which will include, for the avoidance of doubt, Exchange Traded Funds ("ETF") and 10% of its net assets in closed-ended alternative investment funds. In respect of the investment in such CIS, the Fund will at all times comply with the provisions of the Regulations and the Central Bank Rules in respect of any investments in the CIS. The CIS that the Fund may invest in will be authorised as UCITS or non-UCITS CIS, consist of regulated schemes which may be domiciled in a member state of the EEA, the U.S., Jersey, Guernsey or the Isle of Man (in accordance with the provisions of the Central Bank Guidance on UCITS Acceptable Investments in Other Funds).

The Fund may also hold Money Market Instruments for ancillary liquid purposes, all of which shall be of at least Investment Grade. It is not expected that the Fund will have a significant exposure to Money Market Instruments.

The Fund may invest in fixed interest securities, money market and fixed interest collective investment schemes on the basis of a short-term market view for ancillary liquidity purposes. Investment in such collective investment schemes complied with the limits set out in paragraph 4 of this sub-section (b). The fixed interest securities in which the Fund will predominantly invest shall include sovereign bonds (fixed rate) and treasury bills which shall be traded or listed on European fixed interest markets.

Each of the Fund's investments, apart from cash, will be traded or listed on permitted markets as detailed in Appendix II of the Prospectus ("Recognised Exchanges") as defined in the Prospectus. However, it should be noted that, although the securities of companies in which the Fund invests will be listed or traded on Recognised Exchanges, certain of the issuers may be located in countries which are not included in the definition of Recognised Exchanges.

Cash, commercial paper (i.e. short term paper issued by credit institutions), and money market obligations such as short and medium-term treasury bills and treasury notes (both fixed and floating rate) issued or guaranteed by a national government or its agencies or instrumentalities, certificates of deposit, bankers' acceptances, commercial paper and floating rate notes (i.e. bonds which have a variable coupon) will be held by the Fund to provide liquidity and will be in a manner consistent with the Fund's investment objective and policies and subject to the Regulations and the restrictions set out in the Prospectus. In the normal market conditions the Fund will be fully invested in equities subject to the Investment Manager's discretion to invest up to 10% in cash.

The Fund may invest in other sub-funds of the Company, where such investments are appropriate to the investment objective and policies of the Fund (See "Cross Investing" below for further details).

The Fund may also use FDIs for investment, efficient portfolio management and/or hedging purpose as described in section 3.2 below.

(c) Investment Strategy

In order to invest in a global portfolio of equity securities with diversification by sector and country, the investment approach utilises a combination of both quantitative and fundamental analysis (for example, dividend yield, P/E Ratios, balance sheet). The Fund is managed using a strong, disciplined and structured investment process. The initial stage of the investment process involves the utilisation of a quantitative screen. The screen is used to filter the broader equity universe into a sub-set of stocks which represents the investable universe for the Fund. The use of the screen provides the Investment Manager with a focused universe of stocks to research. Effectively, this screening process narrows the universe to a sub-set of stocks which broadly display the following characteristics:

1. Typically large market capitalisation;
2. Dividend yields which are suitable in meeting the Fund criteria of having a high dividend yield;
3. Attractive medium term earnings (top line revenue and underlying profitability) growth relative to the peers and
4. Financially stable, strong consistent balance sheet without high levels of leverage.

The Investment Manager undertakes fundamental research on the candidates within the investable universe. This involves industry/sector research, company analysis and valuation work e.g. examining company's balance sheet, estimating stock valuations based upon the Investment Manager's view for the company's future. The Investment Manager looks to identify the key growth drivers of the business, the competitive landscape, the strategic outlook for the company and the potential risks in the industry, geography or company specific risks. The Investment Manager will endeavour to construct a global portfolio, using an active, bottom-up approach. Geographic and sector weightings are regularly reviewed to ensure that the Fund remains suitably diversified from a risk perspective.

3.2 Use of Derivatives and Efficient Portfolio Management Techniques

The Fund may engage in transactions in FDI for the purposes of investment, efficient portfolio management and/or to protect against currency exchange risks within the conditions and limits laid down by the Central Bank from time to time. The Investment Manager will look to ensure that the techniques and instruments used are economically appropriate in that they will be realised in a cost-effective way. Such techniques and instruments (details of which are outlined below) are options and forwards.

Warrants, share purchase rights and convertible securities will not be directly acquired but may be issued to the Fund pursuant to its investment in a particular security and, in such cases, may be retained for the purposes of efficient portfolio management and traded or exercised when considered appropriate.

Options

An option contains the right to buy or sell a specific quantity of a specific asset at a fixed price at or before a specified future date. There are two forms of options: put or call options. Put options are contracts sold for a premium that give to the buyer the right, but not the obligation, to sell to the seller a specified quantity of a particular asset (or financial instrument) at a specified price. Call options are similar contracts sold for a premium that give the buyer the right, but not the obligation, to buy from the seller a specified quantity of a particular asset (or financial instrument) at a specified price. Options may also be cash-settled. The Fund may use such instruments to hedge against market risk or gain exposure to relevant underlying equity. Any option entered into by the Fund will be in accordance with the limits prescribed by the law.

Forwards

Forward currency contracts could be used to hedge against currency risk that has resulted from assets held by the Fund that are not in the Base Currency. The Fund, may, for example, use forward currency contracts by selling forward a foreign currency against the Base Currency to protect the Fund from foreign exchange rate risk that has arisen from holding assets in that currency.

Direct and indirect operational costs and/or fees (which do not include hidden revenue) arising from use of FDIs for EPM purposes may be deducted from the revenue delivered to the Company. Such costs and/or fees are payable to the relevant counterparty to the FDI in question and such counterparty may or may not be related to the Investment Manager or the Depositary. All revenues generated from such FDIs, net of direct and indirect operational costs, will be returned to the Company.

Collateral or margin may be passed by the Fund to a counterparty or broker in respect of OTC FDI transaction. Please refer to the section of the Prospectus entitled "Collateral Policy" for further details.

The use of FDI and efficient portfolio management techniques for the purposes outlined above will expose the Fund to the risks disclosed under the section of the Prospectus entitled "Risk Factors".

3.3 Borrowing and Leverage

(a) Borrowing

The Company may only borrow on a temporary basis for the account of the Fund and the aggregate amount of such borrowings may not exceed 10% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund. In accordance with the provisions of the Regulations, the Company may charge the assets of the Fund as security for borrowings of the Fund.

(b) Leverage

The Fund may utilise FDI as referred to in the section headed "Use of Derivatives and Efficient Portfolio Management Techniques" above. The Fund will use the commitment approach to accurately measure, monitor and manage market risk and calculate its exposures.

Global exposure and leverage as a result of its investment in FDI (calculated using the commitment approach) shall not exceed 100% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund.

The Investment Manager does not expect the use of FDIs to significantly increase the Fund's risk profile.

The Company on behalf of the Fund has filed with the Central Bank its risk management process which enables it to accurately measure, monitor and manage the various risks associated with the use of FDI. Any FDI not included in the risk management process will not be utilised until such time as a revised submission has been provided to the Central Bank. The Company will, on request, provide supplementary information to Shareholders relating to the risk management methods employed, including the quantitative limits that are applied and any recent developments in the risk and yield characteristics of the main categories of investments.

3.4 Investment Restrictions

Investors must note that the Company and the Fund adheres to the restrictions and requirements set out under the Regulations, as may be amended from time to time. These are set out in Appendix I to the Prospectus.

In accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank, the Fund will apply for a derogation from some of the investment restrictions for six months following the date of the first issue of Shares of the Fund pursuant to the Regulations but will observe the principle of risk-spreading. Please refer to the section 5.5 of Appendix I of the Prospectus for further details.

3.5 Cross Investing

Subject to the requirements of the Central Bank, and if this is considered appropriate to the investment objective and policies of the Fund, the Fund may invest in the other Funds of the Company. Any commission received by the Investment Manager in respect of such investment will be paid into the assets of the Fund. In addition, no Preliminary Charge, Repurchase Charge or Exchange Charge may be charged on the cross-investing Fund's investment. In order to avoid double-charging of management and/or performance fees, the Fund may not be charged an Investment Management Fee or performance fee in respect of that part of its assets invested in other Funds of the Company unless such investment in another Fund is made into a Class of Shares that does not attract any Investment Management Fee or performance fee. Investment may not be made by the Fund in a Fund which itself cross-invests in another Fund within the Company.

Please also refer to the section of the Prospectus entitled "Cross-Investment".

3.6 Profile of a Typical Investor

A typical investor will be seeking to achieve a return on their investment in the medium to long term.

3.7 Risk Factors

Investors should read and consider the section of the Prospectus entitled "RISK FACTORS" before investing in the Fund. However, not all of the risks disclosed in the "RISK FACTORS" section of the Prospectus will be material to an investment in this particular Fund.

In addition to the above referenced risks, investors should also consider the particular implications of the following risks that are relevant to an investment in the Fund. Fees and expenses of the Fund may be charged to the capital of the Fund where insufficient income has been generated by the Fund to cover the fees and expenses. Thus, on repurchases of holdings Shareholders may not receive back the full amount invested and this will have the effect of lowering the capital value of their investment. There is a greater risk therefore that capital may be eroded and "income" will be achieved by foregoing the potential for future capital growth of your investment and the value of future returns may also be diminished. Investors should note however that distributions made during the life of the Fund are a form of capital reimbursement.

Currency Fluctuations

The performance of the assets held by the Fund may be strongly influenced by movements in currency rates because the currency positions held by the Fund may not correspond with the securities positions held.

The risks described in the Prospectus should not be considered to be an exhaustive list of the risks which potential investors should consider before investing in the Fund. Potential investors should be aware that an investment in the Fund may be exposed to other risks from time to time.
